Promotion of Access to Information Manual (the Manual) for Resultant Finance Proprietary Limited (Registration Number 2002/020588/07) and related entities (the Company) as prepared in accordance with section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the Act).

1.	Introduction
	Section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, No. 108 of 1996 (hereinafter referred to as the "Constitution") stipulates that:
	Everyone has the right of access to:
	any information held by the state; and
	any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights National legislation must be enacted to give effect to this right and may provide for reasonable measures to alleviate the administrative and financial burden on the state."
	Based on the above section 32 as well as section 8, which provides for the horizontal application of the rights set out in Chapter 2 ("the Bill of rights") of the Constitution, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 was promulgated in order to give effect to the above-mentioned constitutional right of access to information subject to justifiable limitations as specifically set out in section 50 of the Act.
	Section 50 of the Act provides that a requester must be given access to any record of a private body if:
	any information held by the state; and that person complies with the procedural requirements in this Act relating to a request for access to that record; and access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.
	In addition to the above limitations, a requester also has to act in the public interest if such requester is a public body (i.e. the State) requesting information from such a private body.
